English AA Seafish Pub of the Year

Absolutely Fabulous

After six months of intensive refurbishment and an expenditure of £400,000, August saw the dawning of a new chapter with the opening of our four new super deluxe rooms.

Each room has its own individual character including - 'A Night at the Movies', boasting a 46 inch 3D television creating a viewing experience that has to be seen to be believed. The 'True Romantics' is the perfect room for a special night, a celebration or just to tell your partner that you love them. The 'Champagne' features a fully stocked champagne fridge where you will find everything from mini bottles of Moet to the footballer's favourite Cristal!! The 'Chocolate Heaven' features as much chocolate as you can eat and one of the most opulent bathrooms in Yorkshire. Detailed pictures of all the new rooms are available on our website, as they are proving to be extremely popular early reservation is essential!

Hardens Restaurant Guide 2010

About as far from the sea as you can get but the best seafood we've had anywhere, this decidedly land-locked Dales inn has quite a name for its cuisine and 'in finest Yorkshire tradition', the portions are huge too.

Good Food Guide 2010

This 17th century building combines the log-fire atmosphere with a chic style that is rare in the dales.

AA Restaurant Guide 2010 - Two Rosettes

Top notch seafood in the heart of the Yorkshire Dales.

Delicious Magazine

Voted as a 'hidden gem' by diners of Top Table Reservations and given a thumbs up from the Good Food Guide. You won't be hearing the Yorkshire war cry of "how much"?! The Heifer is excellent value

Record Breakers!

The Wensleydale Heifer has decided to attempt a World Record for the 'Biggest Fish and Chips'.

The Heifer is planning to fry a 40lb fillet of prime halibut in our famous Black Sheep beer batter, 60lbs of hand cut chips and a vat of mushy peas!! The world record is currently held by The Black Rose Restaurant in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. Chef David Moss tells us, "The Heifer has always been renowned for quality fish and chips and it seemed fitting to try and bring the world record back to England and Yorkshire, this will also give us the opportunity to raise money for local charities". The record attempt will take place sometime over the winter - up-to-date information will be available on our website.

Christmas is coming and the Chefs Still Fat!

Christmas Party Menus, Christmas Day Gala Luncheon & New Years Eve menus are all available on our website or by post. The Heifer makes an ideal venue for office parties, family get-togethers and any celebration over the festive season. Book now to avoid disappointment.

The Times

Reel in a prize catch with Whitby cod, crackling Black Sheep Bitter Batter, fat chips and posh peas which is the best fish supper you'll eat all year, in or out of newspaper.

A Taste of The Heifer

Have you ever been to a restaurant where you would have the opportunity to taste everything on the menu? Well, at The Wensleydale Heifer, now you can!!!

For starters we have the house platter for two, which comprises of all the appetisers on one plate!! And for those with a sweet tooth the assiette of desserts, incorporating all of our pastry chef's finest creations is a must - A true taste of The Wensleydale Heifer!!!

Ice Cream Dreams

Together with the usual sumptuous desserts that are on offer, we have decided to recreate some of the old classics, by launching the soon to be famous 'Ice Cream Parlour Menu'.

Hot Fudge Sundaes, various Knickerbocker Glories and Banana Splits will feature. Using only the finest artisan ice cream The Heifer will bring back memories for our more senior guests and create brand new memories for the younger ones!! Respected ice cream aficionado Elysa Moss was hired at great expense to perfect the final menu and her personal favourite is the Raspberry and Marshmallow Knickerbocker Glory!! Come along to The Heifer and give it a try.

Guardian Weekend - Readers Restaurants

A high-end fish restaurant, smack in the middle of the country, with not a whiff of ozone! Unlikely, but true. Chef David Moss raises the bar with classic dishes, kitsch classics and the best fish supper you'll have all year.

Heifer on Tour

The Wensleydale Heifer is about to launch its biggest and best competition ever!!

This will run throughout 2010 and 2011 with some fantastic prizes - To enter - just pick up a poster or simply download one from our website, then take it with you to the most weird and wonderful places that you may visit. Take a photograph with the poster and then either post it on our Facebook page, email or send it to us with your name and address. There are four different categories 'Furthest Distance', 'Most Spectacular', 'Funniest' and finally the 'Cutest'. So if you are planning a sky dive from the summit of Everest whilst dressed in a comedy cow outfit carrying a cute puppy, then you could sweep all the prizes - as long as you get the photograph.

Early Bird

Come and join us between 6.00pm - 6.45pm Monday to Friday to try our two or three course menu. There is a choice of seven starters, seven mains and seven desserts. The menu changes dependent on what is the freshest and best quality produce at the market each day, so you never know what will be on the menu.

Sunday Lunch

Every Sunday Lunch at The Heifer offers a fantastic value set menu showcasing some of the finest local meats and possibly the biggest Yorkshire puddings in the North. Acclaimed food writer Mike Amos described it as "One of the top five Sunday Lunches in recent years". Booking is advisable.

Lobster Dinner Anyone?

The Heifer has become well known throughout Yorkshire for its extensive lobster menu, served as either a half or whole. The menu showcases at least 8 different seasonally changing lobster dishes.

The classics like Thermidor and Rockefeller remain on the menu year round. So if you fancy a lobster dinner then The Heifer is the only place to go!!!

Room in Profile - Champagne Room

Champagne fridge, HD TV, blu-ray DVD, luxury Egyptian cotton sheets, Molton Brown toiletries.

Gluten Free - No Problem!!

At The Wensleydale Heifer we always listen to our guests and after requests from people with wheat intolerance we have now introduced a dedicated gluten free menu.

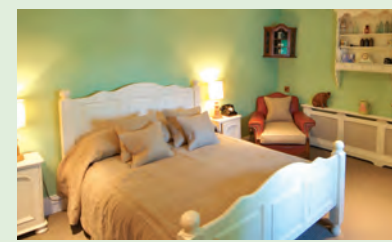

We are able to offer a large choice from a special version of 'The Heifers' most popular dishes including our famous 'fish and chips'. If you telephone in advance we can also prepare a gluten free Sunday Roast including our giant Yorkshire puddings. Extensive vegetarian and vegan menus always available.

Supplier of the month - The White Bedding Company

All the staff at The Heifer wish to pass on our heart felt thanks to Julie and her team at The White Linen Company. Seven days a week they endlessly toil to deliver us the whitest and crispest linen to grace our restaurant tables and bedrooms. May our napkins remain spotless and our towels fluffy!!
